

BEYOND MAGDALEN BRIDGE: THE GROWTH OF EAST OXFORD

Graeme L. Salmon

This historical survey looks at the expansion of East Oxford during the past two centuries from a small hamlet by Magdalen Bridge before 1800 to the densely built up urban environment we know today. The book traces some of the people involved in that development and focuses on the few areas of green public open space now remaining east of the Cherwell. It is profusely illustrated with contemporary maps, drawings and photographs.

£7

All profits from the sale of this book are for the preservation and management of Warneford Meadow

Published by East Oxford Archaeology & History Project, 2010
First published by the Oxford Meadow Press, 2010

34 Hill Top Road Oxford OX4 1PE
01865 248770, graemesalmon@btinternet.com or www.friendsofwarnefordmeadow.org.uk 01865 426955