

Christmas 2017 Calendar

It's finally here...the DRARA Living Advent Calendar, from 1st to 24th December 2017... solve the clues and see what literally is in each window ...We have homes across our streets who will unveil a festive display each day of December until Christmas.

To find the house, you need to solve a simple clue and then head off to explore, find and revel in a bit of festive cheer.

Print this advent calendar (at drara.org.uk), and check the DRARA website occasionally in case of updates to the clues.

If you fancy joining in for this year or future, we still have some vacant slots. Email Clare Ridley at secretary@drara.org.uk
